Day 2 Brussels Chocolate Walking Tour

Today after breakfast proceed for Chocolate Walking Tour. You are taught how to make chocolate yourself through a fun workshop. Orangettes, pralines, Easter eggs etc. You will also take a walk through and around the Grand Place area which will help you to get to know the heart of the old city. You will see the Manneken-Pis, the oldest citizen of Brussels, the Sablon Square filled with antique shops, the Royal Galleries being the seat for the oldest chocolate shop in Europe Neuhaus; credited with inventing the praline and the ballotin (box). Eventually you will follow the Brussels Comic Strip Route, a series of giant comic murals and colourful statues that enliven alleys throughout the old city centre. In addition to this extensive walk past the city's most luxury chocolate shops where you will taste some of the best sellers (Pierre Marcolini, Godiva, Withamer, Neuhaus) and historical landmarks. Overnight stay in Brussels

Day 4 Brussels - Amsterdam - Tuk Tuk City Tour with Cheese & Wine Tasting

Today after breakfast check out from hotel & transfer to Amsterdam by train. Arrive & check in at hotel. Later proceed to enjoy a tour in a different way. Amsterdam Tuk Tuk is almost like a private excursion. You will be driven in all those small streets and along the canal where buses and trams cannot accede, passing by most of the beautiful and famous historical monuments, like the 17th century canals (UNESCO World In heritage List), Anne Frank House, The Red Light District, The Royal Palace, The Western Church, The Jordan District and other places more hidden by tourists but not to be missed during your visit. The vehicle is open on warm days for extra outside view. Also the vehicle being that small it will allow a great interaction with the guide, making it even more fun and enjoyable. You will be dropped at the end at the cheeze and tasting "Cheeze & More". There you will learn about the authentic cheese making process, savor the flavors of 4 different cheeses with dips and mustard, try some specialty beer from the Maallust brewery or sip on glasses of red wine and watch a short film that demonstrates the traditions of Dutch cheese. Overnight stay in Amsterdam.
